

Hi! WHITEFRIARGATE

Saturday 17 October to Saturday 31 October

Hull High Street Heritage Action Zone, funded by Historic England, is hosting an exhibition to mark Black History Month. The exhibition features stories from the Africans in Hull & East Yorkshire Project which aims to highlight and celebrate the importance of Black history and culture to our region.

Read their stories and learn more about these lesser known tales from our city by following the trail of panels through Hull Old Town.

Map points - Starting at the former M&S Building on Whitefriargate 1, No 18 Whitefriargate 2, Hepworth's Arcade 3, Trinity Market food court 4

Please note that Trinity Market and Hepworth's Arcade are open Monday to Saturday, 7.30am to 5pm and face coverings must be worn when inside these venues. Social distancing must be observed at all times.

Please visit www.africansinyorkshireproject.com to read more stories.

If you have any stories to share or would like to be involved in exploring these themes further as part of our High Street Heritage Action Zone engagement programme please contact us on hulloldtown@hullcc.gov.uk

Historic England

Hull
City Council

