

Maritime Museum

The striking, Grade II listed Maritime Museum, can be found in in Queen Victoria Square in Hull city centre. It originally opened in 1871 as Hull's Dock Offices where ships would regularly sail past the windows. It later became the Maritime Museum which opened it's doors in 1975 to tell the story of 800 years of Hull's maritime history. It's currently undergoing conservation and modernisation.

FORM
Shop & Studio

Visit
Hull

