Visit
Hull

Hull loves a party and this year there's a lot to celebrate.

From celebrating 100 years since the birth of renowned poet Philip Larkin to 30 years of the Humber Mouth Literature Festival and Hull Jazz Festival, we're a city proud of our unique voice (we've always got something to say).

It's also a double celebration for our two fishiest landmarks, award-winning The Deep and Hull's iconic Fish Trail. While the stage is set for an action-packed programme at Hull Truck Theatre, which is celebrating its 50th anniversary.

We haven't even got started on the incredible-line up of cultural events and festivals taking place this season!

Hull is ready to get back in the groove this summer, are you?

Join us in streets, squares and venues as we bring people and culture together. It's going to be pretty special.

For parties, penguins and poetry

... IT MUST BE HULL

Summer, we've been waiting for you. There's optimism in the air, can you feel it?

Lighter nights and long summer days putting a spring in our steps, we're ready more than ever to return to the city's streets.

Grab friends and family by the hands and head back into the buzz where wonder awaits once again. Our city is reawakened!

Reminisce about Hull's seafaring past as you splash in historic squares, dance to folk music and explore the cobbled streets of back alley warehouses and old shipping offices, now home to the coolest bars.

From adventure and fun with the kids to weekends away (with or without them), Hull is ready with open arms to give you the biggest Yorkshire welcome.

A vibrant modern city steeped in stories, look up to marvel at the architecture or take a walk on the wild side and discover life under the sea.

For great days out

... IT MUST BE HULL

Lighter nights, blissful bank holidays and a summer ahead stretching for weeks, there's fun to be had in Hull this season.

For free days out kids actually want to go on, take your pick from a host of festivals and museums to the fin-tastic Fish Trail, which this year celebrates its 30th birthday.

Even better, we'll let you into a little secret; a lot of it is completely free!

Take a trip to the Museums Quarter in High Street where you can take a spin through the ages in the Streetlife Museum or marvel at the giant mammoths at the Hull and East Riding Museum. The magnificent Maritime Museum is currently closed for refurbishment, but keep your eyes peeled for pop up events.

As well as having one of the finest regional art collections in the country, Ferens Art Gallery also has an interactive children's gallery. While Humber Street Gallery is home to a range of temporary visual arts exhibitions and events.

Step back in time at Dinostar, Hull's very own interactive dinosaur museum to see, touch, hear and smell these mighty prehistoric creatures. Fancy a journey underwater at one of the greatest aquariums in the world? It's 20 years since The Deep opened so come party with the penguins. Remember, your day pass is valid for 12 months.

Share stories or get creative at Hull Central Library. Home to the Makerspace - create, invent, explore, learn and think in Hull's very own state of the art making space.

Get your game on at Lost City Adventure Golf to test your skills on its two 18-hole indoor adventure golf courses. If gaming is more your thing, take a visit to Arcade Hub Hull, the city's dedicated retro arcade, step back in time with games like Space Invaders, Sega Rally and Pinball.

If adrenaline is what's needed, there's all sorts to choose from. Head to Let Loose! in Woodmansey for high wire climbing and adventurous play. Try the latest sport to feature in the Olympic Games at Rockcity, home of climbing, bouldering and indoor skating. Or pick up speed and go full throttle at Go Karting Hull, the city's new state-of-the-art 400m track, which will test even the most well-versed karters.

Plus, we've got escape rooms, cinemas, bowling, trampolining, laser quest and a whole lot more.

For festivals and fun

... IT MUST BE HULL

A city of creators, makers, poets and musicians, we don't want to blow our own trumpet but we're pretty blummin' good at putting on events.

From jazz and literature to performance and food, we've got a festival for all tastes.

Our summer festivals attract a seriously huge amount of people into the city and the atmosphere is incredible as people gather in the city's streets and squares.

For 2022 there's a spectacular line up to get you in the party mood.

The Humber Mouth Literature Festival and Hull Jazz Festival are celebrating 30 years this year while other events in Hull's cultural calendar include the return of The Big Malarkey Festival, Yum! Food Festival and Hull Pride.

Freedom Festival, the jewel in Hull's cultural crown, returns this summer with its award-winning international arts festival. Taking place over 10 days from Friday 26 August to Sunday 4 September 2022, expect jaw-dropping spectacles to intimate moments where artists and audiences come together.

If you love music, do not miss Humber Street Sesh on 13th August. This is the time to discover exceptional emerging bands and artists from the city and across the UK.

The stage is set

... IT MUST BE HULL

Putting on a show is what we do best (you may remember our 365-day cultural party back in 2017) and the stage is once again set in 2022, ready for a great line up at our fantastic theatres and entertainment venues, whose doors are well and truly open.

Whether you like getting out of your seat to sing and dance along to some of the best known bands and performers, be made to laugh out loud with outrageous comedy or be captivated by some of the most breathtaking performances, Hull's entertainment will not disappoint.

Social, a unique ex-warehouse events venue, bar and pizzeria on Humber Street has DJ nights and live music to cult cinema and comedy.

Global superstars are taking to the stage at Hull's Bonus Arena, from Ronan Keating to Bryan Adams, plus The Official Rupaul's Drag Race UK Series 3 Tour.

Head to Hull New Theatre, one of Hull's oldest venues, for smash-hit West End musicals like Jersey Boys and Les Mis to performances by Opera North and Northern Ballet.

For bands, comedy and classical music, Hull City Hall in Queen Victoria Square has a packed programme for 2022, with a range of acts from Jools Holland to Jimmy Carr.

Hull's acclaimed independent venue Hull Truck Theatre is celebrating its 50th birthday with a programme reflecting the diversity of modern Britain. Highlights include Teechers Leavers '22 as John Godber re-imagines his iconic play for the leavers of 2022.

Whatever your flavour

... IT MUST BE HULL

Sipping a drink by the water's edge, admiring the boats in the Marina, you could be forgiven for thinking you're somewhere on the Med.

From street food to gourmet pub grub, there's never been a better time to discover the city's gastronomic delights.

Leisurely brunches at Nibble to dinner and drinks at J. Johnson, Humber Street in Hull's former Fruit Market is where it's at - the perfect place to sit and watch the world go by.

Sample world cuisine from Greece, India, China and Italy to the good ol' Hull pattie, discover the full flavour of the city at Trinity Market. Like a serving of music or comedy with your food? Check out their website for details of Trinity Live events.

Paragon Arcade is home to The Hispanist, a must for authentic cantina style street food and innovative modern hispanic cooking (and an extensive tequila menu). With a huge range of locally brewed beer, gin and coffee on offer, Hull's got tipples for all tastes.

A great place to start your adventure is at Hull Street Food Nights (9th June, 7th July, 4th Aug and 8th Sept 2022) with a wide range of hot food and drink taking inspiration from all over the world. Head into the city after work and enjoy a drink and something to eat with family and friends.

Why not give making your own gin a go at Hotham Gin School & Distillery at 55 Whitefriargate - located in a former bank, enjoy a drink in the vaults, or a bottomless brunch, while you're there.

For sunset views head to Lexington Rooftop Bar & Terrace on the top floor of the DoubleTree by Hilton, Hull or watch the world go by under the gaze of Hull Minster in Trinity Square.

Explore the science behind the Hull brew at Atom Brewing Co @ The Corn Exchange, look up to count the beer mats at The Lion and Key or visit The Minerva for a Sunday dinner with views of the Humber. Bit of a beer fan? We've even got an ale trail.

Hull's Ale Trail will take you on a journey to the city's oldest and most unique pubs, including Ye Olde Black Boy, which dates back to 1729.

If a pie and a pint is more to your taste, head to The Sailmakers Arms in High Street or if a slice of pizza with a dash of history is your thing, book into The Townhouse Bar & Pizza Kitchen in Hull's oldest domestic building on the historical Scale Lane.

The fact is, our city isn't short of pubs, bars and coffee shops. So sit back with a locally brewed ale, artisan gin or coffee (whatever your tipple of choice) and let us show you around.

For a change of scenery

... IT MUST BE HULL

Luscious green gardens, cobbled trails and squares to keep you cool, there's plenty to do outside in Hull, all the better if the sun comes out to play. Not to mention all our outdoor festivals and events (see page 14 to 19).

A water city, Hull is steeped in maritime history. Imagine its seafaring past as you keep your cool and splash in the shadow of Hull Minster in Trinity Square and the dancing fountains in Queen Victoria Square.

Outside of the city centre there are six paddling pools in parks across the city including the newly refurbished East Park Water Play with a splash pad boasting 43 water jets, ready to reopen this summer.

Hull is a city perfectly sized to explore on foot. Take a stroll along the walkways looking out onto the Humber, admire the boats in the marina and you could be forgiven for thinking you're somewhere on the Med.

A city of trails, discover Hull's hidden secrets (and some that aren't so hidden!) on one of the city's many walking trails -

From an Ale Trail to William Wilberforce, we've a trail for all tastes. Download a guide from VisitHull.org, or pick one up from the Welcome Information Centre at Paragon Interchange.

The fin-tastic Fish Trail, this year celebrates its 30th birthday. Download the trail online, find the fish and explore the city. Can you find all 41 life-sized fish hidden in Hull's cobbled pavements. Keep your eyes peeled for the plaice in the market place and the electric eel outside the electricity sub station! Get your cameras ready and discover the surprises Hull holds. Whether you're a regular visitor or you're new here,

Paul Schofield's Walking Tours are not to be missed! From the picturesque Prince Street to the hidden Truelove sculptures, Paul will guide you around the city's best-loved and most beautiful sights as well as its hidden treasures. Tours available from April to October.

Meet one of Hull's iconic blue-coated volunteers and discover 800 years of maritime heritage through the buildings, stories and the people of Hull in a new free guided tour led by Hull's volunteers. The Yorkshire Maritime City White Badge Tours take place every Thursday and Saturday with two time slots to choose from. See back page for further details.

Celebrate 100 years since the birth of Hull's famous poet, Philip Larkin, by walking in his shoes along the Larkin Trail. Start at Hull's Paragon Interchange and take in sites across the city, ending at the Hull History Centre.

Modern art more your thing? Visit Bankside Gallery, Hull's legal street art quarter, which stretches 3km from the banks of the River Hull through the Wincolmlee Industrial Estate to Bankside.

Pack up a picnic to enjoy by the Marina or in one of Hull's beautiful gardens, including Museum Gardens.

If you need more space to let the kids run off steam, head east to explore East Park. With around 130 acres of parkland, it's Hull's largest park and one of the premier parks in the North of England.

For a bedroom with a view

... IT MUST BE HULL

When you've partied hard you need the perfect place to rest your head.

From boutique city centre hideouts to quirky Airbnb lodgings in Larkin's leafy neighbourhood, there's accommodation to suit all tastes and budgets here in Hull. Whether you're after a luxe hotel with a cool rooftop bar, serviced apartments with room for the whole family, or B&Bs, Airbnbs and hostels - we've got you covered. Want to enjoy the view? Check into the DoubleTree by Hilton, Hull where you can see for miles from the rooftop bar. For waterfront vibes close to Hull's cool quarter, The Fruit Market, there's the Holiday Inn Hull Marina. If you prefer an independent experience, the Victorian splendour of the Kingston Theatre Hotel is the perfect place if you're booked in for an evening show at Hull New Theatre. If you are heading to the Bonus Arena then The Ibis is close by.

Self-catering apartments include Hideout Hotel, with stunning interiors and views of Hull Minster in Hull's Old Town. While quirky Airbnb experiences go by names like Everything but the girl @ number 7. If you'd rather stick to what you know, Hull is home to a variety of well-known hotel chains including Premier Inn, Holiday Inn Express, Travelodge, The Village and Wetherspoons' Admiral of the Humber.

After a hostel? Hull Trinity Backpackers Hostel is located in the heart of Hull's historic Old Town next door to Trinity Market, which serves great coffee, food for all palates and wares from local makers and creators.

No matter what your budget or requirements, Hull's got you covered.
