

Humber Street Sesh

...IT MUST BE HULL

The summer season is upon us and if you're ready to fill your days with something to smile about, grab your diary and fill your buckets with what Hull's got to offer this summer.

From foodie fun to literary adventures, it's time to take the party outside. Whether you're after fun with the kids or weekends away, Hull is a city ready to give you the biggest Yorkshire welcome.

For the kids - trail finders

Art returns to the street this summer and there's a load to choose from. Take your pick from a host of free festivals and museums to the fin-tastic Fish Trail, which this year celebrates its 30th birthday, while new trail Puffins Galore, a trail of painted puffins stretching down the coast to Hull, will be unveiled in July.

Feren's Art Gallery is currently exhibiting Brick by Brick - International LEGO Brick Art, (until 11th Sept). Ticketed performances for young people include Dinosaur World Live, Hull New Theatre (16th - 17th July) and PAW Patrol - Race to the Rescue, which comes to the Bonus Arena at the start of August (7th Aug).

There's also the chance to join in some medieval merriment in the Museums Quarter with the Festival of Archaeology: Medieval Mayhem (30th - 31st July). The weekend will include combat displays from knights in armour, medieval 'have a go' activities, archery and musical performances.

Hull loves a party and this summer there's a lot to celebrate.

From celebrating 100 years since the birth of re-nowned poet Philip Larkin to 30 years of the Hull Jazz Festival taking place in July, Hull has a unique voice. It's also a city that loves food and a good party! So join us in streets, parks and venues as we bring people and culture together.

Hull Pride (30th July) and Yum! Festival (5th - 6th Aug) are back and if it's great live music you're after, grab your tickets now to Humber Street Sesh (13th Aug) which returns to its spiritual home at Hull Marina later this summer.

Jazz in the city

For its 30th year, Hull Jazz Festival (12th - 16th July) has curated a jam-packed summer season with events taking place at venues across the city.

At Hull Truck Theatre, Filament Theatre are joined by Hull Freedom Chorus in Earth Makes No Sound, an extraordinary large-scale collaborative choral work (12th July). While the programme also includes Alina Bzhezinska Hip Harp Quintet (14th July), Late Night Marauders in concert (15th July), Matt Holborn Quartet's world premiere of Here (15th July), Don Vappie & Jazz Creole direct from New Orleans (16th July) and The Kickstart Commissions (16th July).

If jazz is your thing, you won't be disappointed as Hull Jazz presents B.D. Lenz Trio at The New Adelphi Club (13th July), Jools Holland & his Rhythm & Blues Orchestra at Hull City Hall (16th July) and Kerouac: and -all - that - jazz (15th - 16th July) at the Wrecking Ball Arts Centre.

Foodie fun

Festivals and events for foodies include Yum! Festival (5th - 6th Aug), Hull Street Food Nights at Zebedee's Yard (7th July), Hull Rum School - Distil your own Rum at Hotham's Gin School & Distillery (17th July) and Hull Street Food Nights at Hull Marina (4th Aug).

Save the date

Humber Street Sesh, the multi award-winning music festival will return to its spiritual home at Hull Marina (13th Aug) with tickets on sale now.

Festival of Archaeology: Medieval Mayhem

Theatre, art, comedy and music events to add to your Hull calendar:

The Play That Goes Wrong
Hull New Theatre
18th - 30th July

Jimmy Carr - Terribly Funny
Hull City Hall
14th July

Battle of the Georges
Comedy Lounge
22nd July

The AC/DC Experience
Social
14th July

Hollie McNish & Michael Pedersen
Wrecking Ball Arts Centre
13th July

Brain Jar Blues Jam
The Brain Jar
4th Aug

Plug It In
Humber Street Gallery
5th Aug

PAW Patrol - Race to the Rescue

It's time to make plans, meet friends and enjoy all that Hull has to offer.

For a full low down of what's going on and where to stay head to visithull.org

Visit
Hull